

In this time of the COVID-19 virus, we are OK, as far as we know. We have been confined to the Brookdale Senior Living Complex, not seeing more than five people at a time, and eating our meals in our apartment or in the Assisted Living Dining Room. BORING! Assume you all are doing pretty much the same, and may we all stay healthy!

Indian Pots, January

No Squash Since February

Valentine's Day Morning

Easter-Time Greetings from Maggie and Dick Silbar